United We Smile for the Camera!

Maryville College students know what life is all about - and that's having a great time. Whether you're alone or with friends, these Maryville College students know how to make the most of life by smiling for the camera!

Rachel Pruitt and Dee Dee have a wonderful friendship.

These guys show what true friendship is all about.

Jacalyn Burke dreams of being famous.

Loryn Mackenzie and Axis Espinosa are all dolled up.

Emily Sherwood smiles as she diligently works on coming up with creative captions for the yearbook - unlike the one for her picture!

Above: Who says there isn't anything to do during I-term? Christine Collins and Aimee Olivier find several ways to cause trouble!

Time to say good-bye to Seniors...

Right: Kent and Jeremy proudly walk to the end of their college careers and the beginnings of the rest of their lives.

Above: And graduation just wouldn't be complete without the bagpipes playing!

Faculty Dedication

This year the Chilhowean Yearbook Staff is please to dedicate the 2001-2002 yearbook to Dr. Dave Powell.

As a devoted and beloved professor of Maryville College, Dr. Dave Powell has brought a new element of learning to the Maryville College campus. Dr. Powell attended Maryville College for his undergraduate studies. Both of Dr. Powell's parents attended Maryville and as a child Dave knew that he too would attend Maryville College for his undergraduate college experience. Fortunately Dave realized while part-time teaching at UT that he could not stay away from the Maryville College community and soon found himself as a full-time professor within the English department.

Dave has helped to establish many new programs and studies while serving as a professor at Maryville College. Dr. Powell established and taught "Love Your Mother" which served as an environmental studies class during J-Term and eventually became the basis for the wonderful freshmen J-Term classes. Dr. Powell also works with the Maryville College Bonner students. Dave lovingly recalled the first class of Maryville College students of the Bonner program during our interview. He is pleased to see Jenny West, who was in that first class, now coordinate the program he helped become established at Maryville College. He also worked with Jenny West and Linda Clark to create the M.O.O.S.E. program. When asking how the name of the organization was established, Dave quickly replied that the students created the name in the van on the way back from the first trip. Dave has also helped establish the Management through Literature course within the English department. Dr. Powell currently serves as the Presidential and Dean's Scholar Coordinator, Impression's faculty advisor, and still continues to work with Bonner students.

Coach - Beth Coppenger

The scoring of Cross Country is different than other sports. A team must have at least 5 runners to be able to score, and when there are 4 or fewer runners, the group receives a DNS (Did Not Score). A team can run as many runners as they are able, but only the top 5 scores will be counted for the team. I.e. If 7 team members run, the 5 best scores will count for the team. Overall team scores are very simple to understand; the listing of 6/11 for the team means that the team has placed that number position, sixth, in relation to all of the teams competing, out of 11.

Blister in the Sun 2002

Maryville College's Break Before Finals!

United We Rock

What exactly is Blister in the Sun?

Definition of Blister in the Sun:
carnival type event sponsored by Maryville College Student Programming Board to provide a relaxed environment for students before finals damper campus spirits.

Due to previous weather difficulties, Blister in the Sun has not taken place within the last couple of years, but for 2002 the sun shone brightly as Maryville College students came out for a day of fun and sun. The SPB sponsored event contained different inflatable events, such as boxing, jousting, tatoo gallery, and an obstacle maze. Different campus organizations hosted booths on the grounds as well. Blister was a great success this year - thanks SPB!!!

A Behind the Scenes Look!

Left: Tony Murchinson obviously cannot contain the excitement he has for working backstage in the theater. Looks like he may have even had a little "accident" on his way to the bathroom...

Right: Freshman Leslie Ann Johnson curses everyone on stage while she waits for her next cue as a running crew member for the production of The Water Children. She's still a little upset about losing the part she wanted...

United We ACT!!!

We've all heard the famous quote, "There's no business like showbusiness," but at Maryville College this quote is law! During the 2001-2002 school year the Maryville College Theatre Department produced plays that shocked, wowed, embarrassed, and informed their audience. Here are some of the highlights from the season's productions!

Right: Who says interprets have an easy life? Tonya and Lindsay enjoy doing "hard work" backstage by practicing their lines with their hands.

Actions
speak
 Louder than words

The feature production of the Maryville College Theatre department's 2001-2002 season was the fall production of Hamlet. Set within modern times, the production brought the tragic play a new element of suspense and surprise. Senior Josh King wowed the audience with his performance of Hamlet. Josh portrayed a young man losing sanity with such believable characteristics, one had to wonder whether or not he was acting. The following page contains backstage pictures of the crew and production.

To Act or Not to Act

That is the question...

Right: The cast and crew of Hamlet pose for a picture. Aren't they cute! You would never guess that half of them die by the end of the play...

Right: Chandler looks a little confused as she looks over her directions. It's alright Chandler, you can just stand there and look pretty if you would like, it serves almost the same purpose as a stage hand...

LYSISTRATA

*Another Controversial
Maryville College Production*

Directed and adapted by Joshua Noah, Lysistrata is a timeless comedy from ancient Greece involving sex, war, and more sex. It was the only play in Maryville College history that had a warning against children viewing the production, and was the second highest income a production has brought to the school (the first being another controversial play, The Vagina Monologues). Due to the graphic content of the play, we were unable to display actual pictures from the production, but we were permitted to use pictures from backstage.

Comments about Adrienne Clark . . .

Friendly and nice, dresses really well; tall and beautiful; smart!

Nice all the time, she's great to be around;
mindful.

Quiet (not a bad thing) and thoughtful and deep; soft-spoken; dependable.

When she says something people listen;
caring.

Fun but knows what is important to her; an intelligent, kind person.

Really, really nice; very stylish; has a positive outlook on life.

Congratulations from your family. We are very proud of you, and we love you!

Dear Sissy,

I want to thank you for being a great role model for me. I've always wanted to be just like you. You have done great in all that you do. Thank you for being there for me.

Love,
Sierra

Nichole,

I want to thank you for all the joy that you brought into my life. All along I told you that you did not need luck because you had skills. And God and those skills will carry you through life.

United We Remember September 11th

Like most people, I am sure you are more than over the “hoopla” of September 11th - well too bad! The 2001-2002 staff of the Chilhowean decided the theme of “United We Stand” in remembrance of the tragic events of September 11th because it affected each of us personally. Each of us saw our campus change into an environment we had never witnessed before. Friends and foes came together for support and encouragement in this time of fear and uncertainty. Lines that had been drawn in the past were broken and unity swept the campus. This page is dedicated to the victims of September 11th - which includes those who were indirectly victimized, like the Maryville College community.

-Bethany Horvath

It has been an amazing year with joy, heartache, and challenging new experiences, but it has been well worth living. When I think of everything that has happened (personal, local, national, and international), I am reminded of Ecclesiastes, chapter 3, verses 1-8, because of all that has occurred in the last year.

- 1: For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven:
- 2: a time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted;
- 3: a time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;
- 4: a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;
- 5: a time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
- 6: a time to seek, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;
- 7: a time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
- 8: a time to love, and a time to hate; a time for war, and a time for peace.

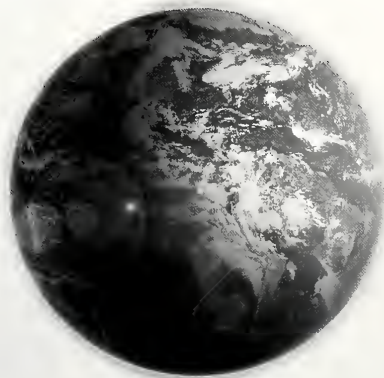

I would like to extend a special thanks to Michelle, Bethany, Stevie, and the Chilhowean Staff for the hard work, support, and laughs that were shared during the creation of the 2001-2002 Chilhowean. Only by working together could we accomplish our goals this year, and I have been blessed to work with each of you. Thank you so much for a wonderful year, yearbook, and memories.

Thank you to security for the late night company, and everyone else who supplied materials for the completion of the yearbook. And everyone else on campus. This book would not be possible without your support. Thank you.

And thank you to my friends, who supported me and my work this year when I was feeling well and times that were not so wonderful. Amanda, Ben, Bre, Emily, Erin, Heather, Jesse, Mary Rose, Matthew, Megan, and anyone else I may have forgotten in the end-of-the-year crunch. Thank you for the talks, visits, movie nights, sharing of emotions, and ice cream. Thank you, guys, and I will see you next year.

Finally, Best wishes to all of my friends graduating and moving onto other things this year. Tanya, Jen, Jenn, Jennifer, David, (and the rest of you know who you are . . .), I will miss editing your papers; talking and eating with you; visiting at odd hours; and simply being in your presence. Keep in touch, and God speed.

Until our paths cross again and forever after, I wish you Safe and Prosperous Journeys on all of the endeavors that you undertake.

Love always,

Editor's Page

Another year has come and gone, and another Chilhowean yearbook has been produced. I remember the day Michelle Ballew called to inform me that I had received the position of editor for the Chilhowean. At the time of acceptance of the position, I had no idea what I was getting myself into. I was soon informed that the previous year's book had not been completed. Always being one to accept a challenge, I thought nothing of this problem . . . until I got into the office.

This year has been challenging and rewarding in many ways. Although it has been a difficult year, I have made it and proved wrong those who thought it couldn't be done. Of course, I did not do this all by myself and have many people to thank for helping me through the year.

I first have to thank my wonderful assistant editors and advisor.

Fairlena - I honestly would have been lost without your guidance and knowledge. I am thankful for your experience and patience with me as I learned the ropes. I cannot wait to produce next year's book with you!

Stevie - I still feel terrible about having to leave you in the SGA meeting and like I've said before, am so proud of you! Thank you for attempting to keep us organized in the office and doing so many different "behind the scene" tasks. I am glad to have you by my side!

Michelle - You have been the encouragement and strength I needed this year to get me through the nightmare! Thank you for believing in me and keeping me motivated when I didn't think I could go on. I couldn't ask for a better advisor/therapist!

Next I have to thank all the special people in my life who listened to my complaints, rants, whining, and etc.

Lydia, Lora, and Andrea - Thank you for keeping my head on straight and being there for me when I just needed a shoulder to cry on. Coming "home" to the three of you after a day of dealing with the book always made my world brighter.

Lindsay (my big sister) - Our somewhat weekly "appointments" always made me grateful to have you in my life. Your encouraging words and open ears were always what I needed. I am going to miss you next year! I'll try to be as good of a big sis as you were!

Frank - I am so grateful to have such a wonderful friend in my life. This year was rough for the both of us, but we made it with each other's help. Thank you for our late night phone talks and visits. I love you and thank you for helping me this year through all my difficult times.

Jason - Thanks for the great times this past year and being there for me when I needed it the most.

Beth, Becky, Chad, Tara, and Kim (my freshmen friends) - Seeing your guys smiling faces on Monday nights and getting your hugs energized me. I am so glad to have you in my life!

IVCF - Thanks for your prayers and encouragement. I honestly don't know how I would have managed this year without you all!

Jenny, Valerie, Mandy, Anne, and Rebecca (my Court St. Chicks) - Thank you for getting me through the second semester and teaching me everything I need to know to get through life. Good times, good times...

Last but not least, I have to thank my family for their prayers and understanding through the year. I love you very much and am thankful to have you in my life!

And so ends my job as the 2001-2002 editor of the Chilhowean. I hope you enjoy the book and all the hard work that was put into it.

Until Next Year,
Bethany Horvath
